

Georgios Chalkiadakis is an Associate Professor at the School of Electrical and Computer Engineering, Technical University of Crete. His PhD thesis (UofToronto, 2007) was a nominee for the 2007 IFAAMAS Victor Lesser Dissertation Award. Georgios was a member of the scientific committee and local organizer of the EASSS-2014 summer school. Moreover, he was a co-chair of the EURAMAS, IFAAMAS, and AIJ-endorsed CretaMASS2013/HAISS-2013 summer school. He has served as a reviewer at several AI/MAS journals, including JAAMAS; and as an SPC and PC member of several top AI/MAS conferences, including AAMAS and EUMAS. He is also a regular participant in those conferences. Since Jan 2015 he serves as the General Secretary of the Hellenic AI Society-EETN (elected twice for two consecutive terms). More info on Georgios academic CV and service can be found at <https://emea01.safelinks.protection.outlook.com/?url=http:%2F%2Fwww.intelligence.tuc.gr%2F~gehalk&data=01%7C01%7Csanja.y.modgil%40kcl.ac.uk%7C9b1f486065524a592f1608d57aff30ff%7C8370cf1416f34c16b83c724071654356%7C0&sdata=L181g%2BZZT5vQHPDr3f%2BDZt1Nkz6XccgA8UEyyfPu6Nc%3D&reserved=0>